Food and Menus

Rest assured that our Chefs have enormous experience in designing delicious dishes that are guaranteed to exceed your guests' expectations and fully satisfy all tastes and desires.

We are therefore pleased to present to you on the following pages our latest choice of five delicious menus, each slightly varying in price. These menus may be chosen as part of our special packages or standalone and added separately to your other function costs.

PLEASE NOTE: In order to maintain quality standards when we run multiple functions per day (which sometimes occurs during the year but often occurs at year end), the first client to confirm their function booking for a particular date gets to choose the 'menu of the day'. Once a menu of the day has been set by the first booking client all other clients will be required to use the same menu for the same day. So don't delay! Book early and get in there first so that your menu choice becomes the menu of the day.

Special Packages and Pricing

Each of our five presented menus is very attractively packaged with welcome drinks, décor themes and venue hire. We're confident that these packaged specials will pleasantly surprise you both in terms of quality and affordability.

However, should you prefer to tailor your own function menu or create your own unique and difference theme using décor, entertainment and venue location, please contact us so that we may fully understand your requirements and then provide a detailed quotation. To get an idea of what costs might be included, please refer to the brief listing below with an indication of applicable prices and charges.
